

1 two-paragraph affair.

2 The second one is Resolution Number 24 by the 3 Committee on Local Government and the third is a Memorandum
4 with respect to that Resolution.

5 Resolution Number 24, which the Local Government
6 Committee recommends, urges the Governor to establish a
7 Commission on local affairs. The idea has been discussed
8 with representatives of Governor Agnew and he has no
9 objection to it. The Resolution has the unanimous approval 10 of the Legislative Liaison Committee. This is what the 11 Commission would do if the Governor appoints it:

12 First, analyze existing public general and public
13 local laws and advise the General Assembly what status
14 affecting local government should be retained, repealed or 15 amended.

16 Secondly, to assist Counties in the preparation
17 of their instruments of government which all of them must 18 have under the local government article by July of 1972.

19 Thirdly, to advise the Governor's Task Force on 20 Modern Management and the General Assembly on the desirability 21 of establishing a permanent department on local affairs and
